What makes CBC Preschool so Special?

Quality not Quantity

There are many quality preschool programs in which to choose from. It seems like there is a school on every corner. So how do you choose which one is best for your child? It is best to find a school that has unique qualities that fit into your family's needs. If your family needs a loving, and safe atmosphere where the quality of the program weighs more than the quantity of students enrolled, Capo Beach Church Preschool is the program for you. What makes CBC Preschool a quality program is our mission statement, our nurturing staff, the families we serve, and the flexibility of our program. The key to ensuring quality is low student to teacher ratios so that every child receives a loving and nurturing experience.

At Capo Beach Church Preschool our mission statement is to put children in touch with God by the introduction His love through the instruction of His word, the B-I-B-L-E. Our primary objective for our students is that they foster a positive relationship with God, friends, and their teachers so they will transform into lovers of Christ, leaders amongst their peers and joyful learners. Our goal is to accomplish this by modeling biblical principles through our guidance and attitudes in our daily lives.

Another unique characteristic that sets CBC Preschool apart from other programs is our staff. Requirements for our staff

Testimonials

“I am so blessed and thankful for the amazing teachers at Capo Beach Preschool. My daughter has been attending for two years now and I can’t begin to tell you what an impact they have made on my family. Being a parent isn’t easy and you never want to leave your children with just anyone. The staff at CBC treats their students like family and provides amazing supervision, care and fun/interactive education, while always keeping the parents in the loop on the progress the students are making. We’ve tried others in the South OC area and none of them come close to CBC.” Brianna

“CBC Preschool’s loving & nurturing staff and environment have been the key component in our daughter’s emotional, educational and spiritual growth. She comes home with joyful stories and projects from her day and we thank God that she is being cared for and taught by teachers that encourage and reinforce the same principles that we uphold in our home. The memories, friendships, and knowledge that she has gained from attending this wonderful school are priceless.” Stephanie

“Being a single mom makes it difficult to take my child to activities outside of school. I like that CBC Preschool brings in extracurricular activities like sports and dance so my child gets those opportunities.” Kim are not only proper education, training, and experience but they are people who have a passion for teaching young children. They uphold a high standard of quality care. They build relationships with their students and families to ensure that everyone feels like they are apart of the same family. Each teacher has something unique and special to offer their students from teaching Spanish to playing the guitar. They plan and organize curriculum that meets the requirements but they also use their creativity to make activities fun for their students.

CBC Preschool serves a community of awesome families in the demographic areas of San Clemente, Dana Point, Capo Beach, San Juan Capistrano, Laguna Niguel, and Mission Viejo.
